RELIABLE BRANDS

SEA PORT®

Sea Port provides more than just seafood. We provide products and a name you can trust. We have a reputation that represents quality, versatility, consistency, ongoing relationships and competitive pricing. All of our brands have fresh, appealing packaging and are both foodservice and retail-ready. Our classic Sea Port® brand, also referred to as “Catch Our Wave” and “Wave” brand, offers the widest selection under one brand. From Shrimp to Squid, Mussels to Striped Pangasius, Sea Port is truly your “one-stop-shop” for branded frozen seafood. If you like the ease of buying with just one call, one stop, one name you can trust, let Sea Port be the brand to fill your freezer.

Cnami®

Our success as a branded supplier is dependent upon our relationships, how we relate to you and our entire distribution chain. Through our brands, we strive to make connections with our seafood buyers and consumers. We aim to provide brand lines that represent seafood as it should be - the protein with personality! Our sophisticated Cnami® brand features seafood products that will satisfy your Asian seafood needs. The current product line includes Tobiko, Eel, Seaweed Salad, and Tilapia; other products will soon be available in our Cnami brand.

OLA!™
BRAND

Discover OLA!® brand. “Ola” means “wave” in Spanish, and we created this brand to have a bold, bright, colorful appeal as well as to highlight some of the versatile ways seafood can be served. All packaging in OLA! brand includes product information in both English and Spanish.

CLIPPER'S
CATCH

Sea Port has been ambitiously fulfilling the needs of the seafood industry and our never-ending journey continues. The wind is in our sails, and our sights are fixed far beyond the horizon. The Clipper's Catch brand is an ideal display of Sea Port's earnest endeavor to bringing you great seafood.

With our wild caught selections, we deliver our sound promise of freshness, demonstrate our unyielding dedication to quality, and uphold our serious commitment to sustainability. Clipper's Catch is sailing to your shore as quickly and as smoothly as Sea Port's ever growing and well-earned reputation. Inquire with your sales rep on how we can offer this brand to you.

Waves Within Waves

Your one-stop shop

When you buy from Sea Port you get it all in one place! You can expect outstanding service and the widest variety of quality seafood at the most competitive prices. Shrimp, lobster, crab, scallops, and fish—both wild and farmed—can be purchased under one roof, from one company, on one wave's crest.

World-wide Waves

Variety and reliability

Sea Port's expert buyers know where to surf the oceans of the world to secure the finest seafood. To ensure that you, our customer, have what you need, we continue to search world-wide to build our vast network of seafood suppliers.

Waves, Waves, Waves

Always making waves

Sea Port's knowledge and use of technology allows our customers and suppliers to get connected. We offer you the most efficient, cost-effective way to work with us. To catch the perfect wave, surf to www.cport.net.

Nation-wide Waves

Wherever you are

Whatever your location, from sea to shining sea, you can find us! Our distribution channels extend coast to coast. We currently keep our inventory of products in Los Angeles, New York, and Chicago.

Responsibility

Sea Port is committed to leading efforts to improve the way both wild and farmed seafood are produced on the high seas or on the farm. We are committed to sourcing from suppliers who are also committed to social justice and the wise and ethical use of all resources.

Health

With new research findings emerging almost daily about the benefits of seafood in the diets of pregnant women, children, young adults, and seniors, Sea Port has made the commitment to helping people understand how adding seafood to the diet will benefit everybody.

Prosperity

Seafood is a cornerstone of the global economy. We believe that more free and transparent global seafood markets results in the greatest good for the greatest numbers.

Sustainability

Sea Port is committed to supporting efforts to improve the sustainability of all seafood, wild and farmed. It is our belief that global demand for seafood will only be met through aquaculture—the responsible farming of fish and shellfish. We engage in initiatives to ensure that the seafood that is loved by everyone today will be available to generations of the future.
